

What do you want to know about your clients, staff or project results?

Masters of Survey offer a fantastic online research package and will take all the work out of your hands.

You receive the results and analysis in a professionally written and designed report and can concentrate on the questions you need answered and what you will do with the results, while we take care of all the practical steps for you. We deliver a total package for an all-inclusive fee. No surprise additional costs. Together, we have over 20 years of expertise in survey design, survey implementation, analysis, advice and facilitation. We are your Masters of Survey.

We offer a total package for one fee:

- › Concept questionnaires for your review and approval, based on an analysis of your objectives.
- › The best suitable online survey subscription.
- › Design and import of the questionnaire into the online system.
- › Test rounds to ensure optimal functioning.
- › Automatically generated, personalised invitations and reminders.
- › Graphical displays.
- › A written analysis of the results with recommendations.
- › Facilitation of meetings to discuss the results.
